

2020 impact report

Thanks to you, our mission to provide meaningful connections between people and nature will continue throughout the pandemic, and beyond. Thank you for supporting the Schuylkill Center in 2020.

YOU'RE PROVIDING ACCESS TO NATURE WHEN IT'S NEEDED MOST.

- 340 acres of green space and trails are cared for, open, and free for the public.
- Free virtual programs about nature and wildlife provided connection and learning to over 8,000 people.

YOU'RE NURTURING TOMORROW'S NATURE CHAMPIONS.

- New "Nature Exploration Kits" gave 500 local families the tools for hands-on learning at home.
- Over 400 children benefited from safety-modified outdoor learning experiences this summer and fall.
- New virtual field trips immerse students in nature and environmental science from a distance.

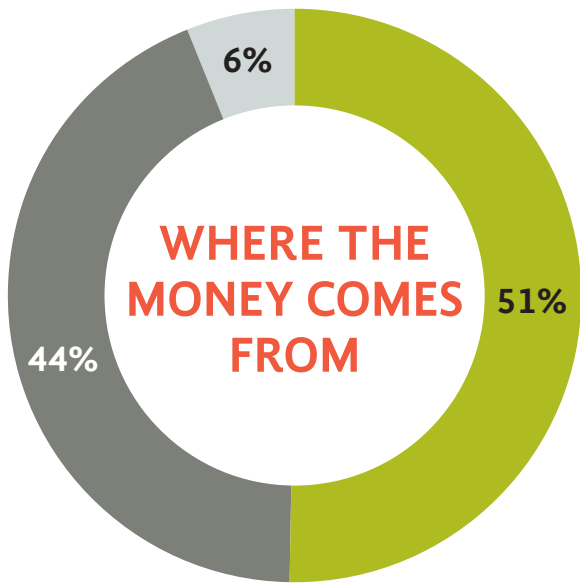

YOU'RE PROTECTING OPEN GREEN SPACE IN PHILADELPHIA.

- 1,000 square feet of invasive devil's walking stick was replaced with a protected new grove of 100 native trees and 40 shrubs.
- Stewardship of meadows and fields continues to improve habitats for hundreds of native plant and wildlife species.

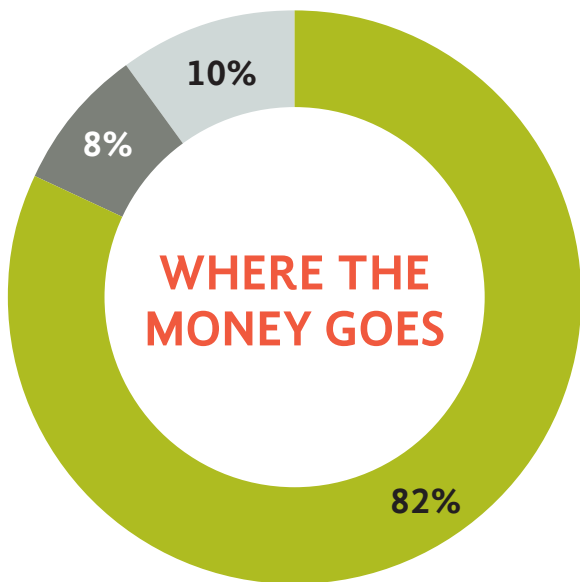

YOU'RE CARING FOR INJURED, ILL, AND ORPHANED WILDLIFE.

- Over 1,300 orphaned and adult wildlife received medical care, nourishment, and refuge.
- Our 24-hour hotline responded to over 2,500 calls from the public with expert advice for wildlife concerns.

“

Thank you so much for your quick call regarding the three baby flying squirrels I found! I was so relieved your staff knew exactly what to do. Babies have been reunited with their mama thanks to you!”
